Success Made Easier With Launch of E-Commerce Site

BDI Canada proudly launches its e-commerce website, <http://new.bdiexpress.com>, offering safe, reliable and immediate procurement solutions.

In addition to the procurement capabilities, there are many added benefits of new.bdiexpress.com to BDI customers. “Our new site is evidence that we truly listen to our customers. Providing a secure and easy to use site will enable our customers to access their information whenever they need it,” says Brian Dyke, President of BDI Canada. “More than just accessing account information, products and procurement, our site is unique. Our customers will be able to login into our site for other value added services such as our Knowledge Centre, accessing automation and engineering information and other customized solutions.”

With more than 200 global branch operations in Canada, the U.S., Mexico, Europe and Asia, BDI services companies throughout the world. BDI is a leader in the distribution and application of bearings, mechanical power transmission, electrical power transmission, linear motion, fluid power, material handling, industrial, safety, and filtration products. Value-added services offered by BDI include inventory and supply chain optimization, advanced technical support, documented cost savings and end-user training.
